SWEET DEAL: SUPER BOWL BET BRINGS BOSTON CREAM PIE CUPCAKES TO SPOKANE

Friendly wager among Governors yields Boston Cream Pie Cupcakes for local food pantry

(Spokane, Washington) – February 13, 2015 – The Women & Children’s Free Restaurant & Community Kitchen is feeling the Super Bowl love despite the heartbreaking loss to the Patriots last month. That’s because they are about to receive dozens of donated desserts.

Prior to the 2015 Super Bowl between the Seattle Seahawks and the New England Patriots, the Governors of Washington, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire made a friendly wager on the outcome of the 2015 Super Bowl. Win or lose, the Governors agreed to stakes donating a regional culinary delight to those in need.

From Massachusetts, Boston cream pie cupcakes from the Koffee Kup Bakery in Springfield, Massachusetts, were to be delivered to a Washington state food pantry. It was announced today that the Women & Children’s Free Restaurant is the lucky recipient.

“Our guests will be thrilled with such a special treat,” says Executive Director Lisa Diffley. “It’s bittersweet but it makes the loss of our Seahawks a bit more palatable to enjoy the beloved Boston cream pie cupcakes.”

The Women & Children’s Free Restaurant will serve the delightful desserts after an upcoming dinner. The Women & Children’s Free Restaurant provides more than 40,000 meals each year to women and children in the Spokane region. The restaurant is in the midst of a capital campaign that will double its capacity.

New Hampshire’s Governor donated bacon from North Country Smokehouse in Claremont, New Hampshire, to Mary’s Place in Seattle. On behalf of Washington, Seattle-based Ivar’s Restaurant will donate 1,000 cups of clam chowder to food pantries in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
